

Children's ExpressCARE Children's ER Guide

Lehigh Valley Reilly Children's Hospital offers Children's ExpressCARE, the only walk-in care in the region that's just for kids. Patients up to 21 years old can receive care for minor illnesses and injuries without an appointment.

Use this guide to find the right place to receive care for your child.

Children's ExpressCARE

- ✓ Allergies
- ✓ Animal bites (rabies vaccine at ER only)
- ✓ Chest pain (from cold or bronchitis)
- ✓ Cuts (minor)
- ✓ Cough
- ✓ COVID-19 testing
- ✓ Earache
- ✓ Eye pain/redness
- ✓ Fever (over 2 months old)
- ✓ Flu
- ✓ Flu shot
- ✓ Minor headache
- ✓ Nausea
- ✓ Poison ivy
- ✓ Rashes
- ✓ Sore throat
- ✓ Sprains and strains
- ✓ Wounds

Children's ER

- ✓ Broken bone
- ✓ Chest pain (severe)
- ✓ Cuts (deep)
- ✓ Eye injuries
- ✓ Fever (under 2 months old)
- ✓ Head injury
- ✓ Loss of consciousness
- ✓ Severe abdominal pain
- ✓ Severe shortness of breath
- ✓ Suicidal feelings
- ✓ Wounds that won't stop bleeding

VS

Children's ExpressCARE- Palmer Township

Health Center at Palmer Township
3701 Corriere Road, Suite 10
Easton, Pa.

484-591-7205

Children's ExpressCARE- Fogelsville

Health Center at Fogelsville
1431 Nursery St., Suite 102
Fogelsville, Pa.

610-336-8277

Children's ER

Lehigh Valley Hospital-Cedar Crest
1200 S. Cedar Crest Blvd.
Allentown, Pa.

LVHN.org/ChildrensER

Children's ExpressCARE is a service of Lehigh Valley Physician Group